

Advantages of Moving to a Life Plan community

THE VILLAGE AT
AUGSBURG
A National Lutheran Community

Continuing Care Retirement Communities (CCRC), also known as Life Plan Communities, are designed to offer residents a maintenance-free lifestyle all while promoting wellness, socialization, more life choices, fellowship and independence. Learn more about the advantages of choosing a Life Plan community below.

Why should I choose a Life Plan community?

Life Plan communities offer benefits you won't find in other senior living communities. Along with a campus full of resort-like amenities comes security in knowing additional care options including assisted living, nursing care, memory care and rehab are available should needs arise. Being a larger, more established community, Life Plan communities often offer a variety of residences, a full social calendar and many features including fine dining, a wellness center, transportation, a beauty salon and more. These amenities can help you save on your day-to-day costs, like what you would normally spend on travel, food and gym memberships.

What are the advantages of a Life Plan community?

Community living helps people live longer, healthier lives and Life Plan community residents report more satisfaction than peers who remain in their own homes. You'll thrive with the comfort of a caring team of professionals, access to future care and a campus specially designed for older adults. More benefits of a Life Plan community:

- A secure, engaging, environment focused on creating community
- Delicious, nutrition-focused dining
- Convenient campus amenities (fitness, dining, concierge, transportation, beauty salon)
- Predictable costs
- Socialization and fellowship opportunities
- No more home maintenance
- Tax benefits associated with entrance fees and monthly fees
- A full continuum of health services on campus

The right option for you

We believe a Life Plan community checks all the boxes: residents can move in and enjoy a maintenance-free, independent lifestyle with many amenities and the comfort of knowing a full continuum of care options are available should needs arise.
